GREEK GAMES

SOUTHERN ACCENT

Bottom left: Intensity rises as teams compete in the difficult "tug-o-war".

Below: A new edition to the Greek Games, plastic is wrapped tightly around those in the "piggy-back" competition.

ATO's Patrick Cashio suffers the most from losing the tug-o-war, by falling into the muddy kiddie pool.

SOCO

Top right: Former BSC student and recent "major record deal" recipient Matthew Mayfield performed for his old classmates.

Below: A BSC student is thrown from the notorious mechanical bull, a favorite SOCO event provided by Quest II.

Alpha Chi's Mr. Hilltopper

The Cellar's Indie Rock Festival

COMMENCEMENT 2005

BSC MEN'S TENNIS

BSC WOMEN'S TENNIS

BSC MEN'S GOLF

BSC WOMEN'S GOLF

BSC MEN'S BASEBALL

BSC WOMEN'S SOFTBALL

Special thanks to Elizabeth Wilson, Emily Hunter, Molly Cowley and the new, very capable editor of the Southern Accent Ellen Miller. Your contributions to this publication were priceless, and without you, this book would have never been completed. It was a lot of work, but I sincerely hope you and the rest of the BSC community enjoy this new, smaller format.

-Katie Pellerin

A year in the life.

*Next in importance to freedom and justice is popular education, without which neither freedom nor justice
can be permanently maintained.*

- James A. Garfield

Halloween on the Hilltop

Right: BSC Faculty's children enjoyed trick-or-treating in Margaret Daniel.

Campus Policeman Jeff Harris spends some quality time with Darth Maul of Star Wars fame.

BSC students line up for the judging of the costume contest.

Left: A BSC Vampire emerges on the dorm quad as the sun goes down.

Residents of Maragret Daniel decorated their halls for Halloween on the Hilltop.

A freshman student treats a little girl to some Halloween goodies.

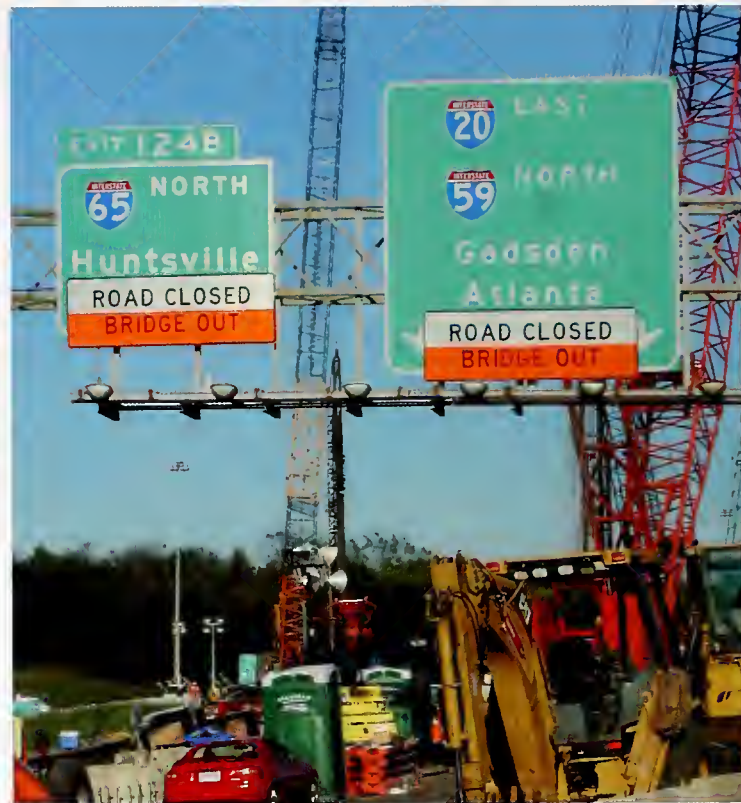

Sigma Chi's "Pie the Pledge" booth proved to be much more entertaining for the children and the actives than for the pledges.

Thanksgiving Break

With the 20/59 bridge closed for construction, long traffic delays are inevitable.

Emily Eddings does not have a long drive home...she's from Hoover!

Margaret Daniel girls Alyssa Boatwright and Stephanie Delaney lug their belongings out to the curb.

Right, Emmy Cory waves good-bye as she prepares to leave BSC in the dust.

Far right, Freshman Amy Roark doesn't need any help carrying her stuff to the car.

Norton Campus Center

BSC Theatre Productions

Right, Rapunzel and her prince protect their baby from the evil witch.

Cinderella begs her evil stepmother to let her attend
the Prince's ball.

Right, Katie Holmes keels over dead when she receives some disturbing news.

Far right, Addressing the audience during the opening monologue.

Leslie Roberts stuns her fellow castmates in "Everything I Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten."

The cast of "Everything I Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten" strikes a pose.

Above, Katie Holmes soothes her castmate during the interim production of "Agnes of God."

Left, Morgan Smith raises her hand to say, "Oh! Me! Pick me! Teacher, please pick ME! Pretty please!!"

Interim 2005

Far Right, During the Italy trip with Dr. McInturff and Dr. Pezzillo, students got the chance to visit the Trevi Fountain.

The kids in Honduras took a flying leap (literally!).

Right, Students in Scot Duncan's Interim class had the chance to explore the Cahaba River.

Right, Donnovin Rogers and Beth Crowe spent time in art museums across the state for their Interim class led by Professor Spencer.

The boys on Professor Donahue's Seattle Interim class cozy up to a very large piece of driftwood.

Left, Repairing houses in the community was just one part of the Woodlawn Service Learning Interim.

Visting the famous Seattle fish market was a "must see" for these students.

Left, Several BSC Ladies made friends with Flipper, the dolphin, while in Honduras.

Dorm Life

Kathryn Gilmer studies diligently in her dorm room in Bruno.

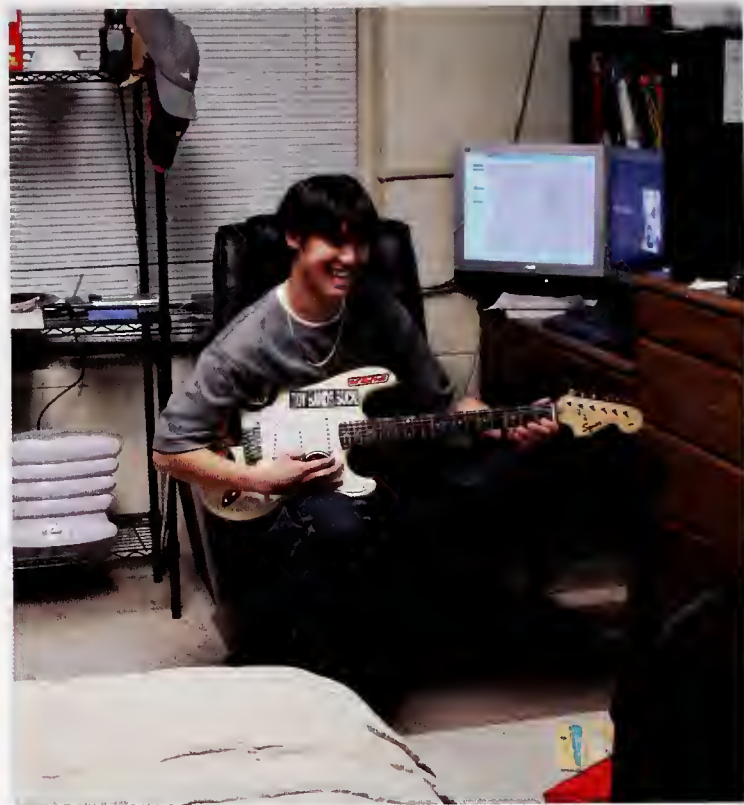

The dorm rooms in New Men's seem to all have one thing in common—messy residents.

Doing homework on your computer in the dorm rooms is one of the reasons why BSC was voted one of the "most wired college campuses" in the country.

Far right, Freshman Erin Hamm uses her dorm room as a construction zone for her popsicle stick house.

Freshman Onna Sweatman and Chris Stalling don't come to the Cellar to drink coffee, they come to study.

Maybe the employees at the Cellar have been having a little too much coffee recently.

On nice days students love to take their meals outside to eat around the fountain in the Alumni Plaza.

The caf provides the perfect setting for students to relax and enjoy their meals in between classes.

Feeding Frenzy

Homecoming Week

Far Right: making your way through the inflatable maze, provided by Quest II, was not easy!

Many students took full advantage of the free hot chocolate in the atrium, compliments of the SGA.

The bonfire blazes on as it is reflected in the library windows.

Right, The night before the game, students who were brave enough to get close, roasted marshmallows.

These students relive their childhood as they race each other while weighed down with bungee chords.

BSC students came out to show their support for the Panthers.

Below, New Homecoming Queen Susan Petty, of Mountain Brook, was escorted during halftime by her father.

Left, BSC Panther Bucky McMillan makes a mad rush down the court as he is chased by a member of the VMI team.

Greek Life

The Alpha Chis cheer as they wait for their new members to run up the hill on Bid Day.

Keeping with the BSC campus tradition, the Sigma Chis are wet and wild on Guys' Bid Day.

The Sigma Nu's and Chi Omega's don't need the sun to have fun at their Beach Bash mixer.

ZTA's Tiffany Stewart, Shannon Eanes, and Anna Meegan support their sister, Whitney Gray, in a local race.

Sigma Nus Joe Phelps and Jennings Goza look for trouble on Thursday night at the Sigma Nu house.

These Pi Beta Phi's take the late night shift at Relay for Life, a campus wide philanthropy to benefit the American Cancer Society.

Members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon meet outside their house for a photograph at SAE's Pledge Bash.

Shelby Groner, Kate Drummond, and Ashley Vines seem to be full of cheer at the Chi Omega mixer.

Birmingham-Southern Greeks know where the fun is on the last day of the Fall Term. The brothers of Kappa Alpha celebrate at their KA Christmas party.

Delta Sigma Theta relaxes at a hotel after a long day of business at their national convention.

A Different VIEW

A different view. After much debate and consideration between the SGA and Publications Board, it was decided that this Southern Accent volume should approach its purpose with a different view. Therefore, this year's staff concentrated on highlighting the year's change. Specifically, Birmingham-Southern College welcomed new members to its administration, Dr. David Pollick as College President, Renie Moss as the Dean of Students and Buu Duong as Student Affairs Graduate Assistant and advisor to Student Publications. Along with these new faces, came the Southern Accent staff. Each of the five members, including myself, were new to the college's yearbook. The benefit of all these replacements is that they offered the Hilltop a new and refreshing perspective on our community. Sub sequentially, the Southern Accent's look has been rejuvenated with a smaller, more artistic and colorful layout scheme. On behalf of this dedicated, fresh, new staff, we sincerely hope that you have enjoyed the differences in our yearbook. On a side note, I am extremely impressed with Emily, Ellen, Molly and Elizabeth for taking on this enormous project with only three months to finish this stellar book. For all of you wondering where the spring sports are, keep an eye out for our Supplement..
